

Proclamation

Presented

In Recognition of Historical Photo Restoration Day

WHEREAS, Historical Photo Restoration Day will be recognized on July 11, 2011, to raise awareness about technology existing for people to scan and restore their own personal photos; and

WHEREAS, Historical Photo Restoration Day promotes Hawai'i's long and rich history and heritage, a large portion of which has been documented through photographs; and

WHEREAS, Historical Photo Restoration Day supports the efforts made by genealogists, museums, historical societies, families, and individuals to preserve photos through the use of current photo-editing software at one's home, or through many of our State's photo professionals; and

WHEREAS, Historical Photo Restoration Day educates individuals about professionals and service organizations who provide information on how to preserve photographs from different generations; and

WHEREAS, Historical Photo Restoration Day reminds us that many photographs are destroyed daily through deterioration due to age, moisture, fading, tears, and children's crayons; and

WHEREAS, Historical Photo Restoration Day wishes to honor the past residents of the State of Hawai'i and their accomplishments by taking the necessary means to preserve their memory;

THEREFORE I, NEIL ABERCROMBIE, Governor, and I, BRIAN SCHATZ, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Hawai'i, do hereby proclaim July 11, 2011 as in Hawai'i and urge the people of the Aloha State to join us in recognizing this special occasion.

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this twenty-third day of May, 2011.

NEIL ABERCROMBIE

Governor, State of Hawai'i

BRIAN SCHATZ

Lt. Governor, State of Hawai'i
